

What are the most rented family-friendly films

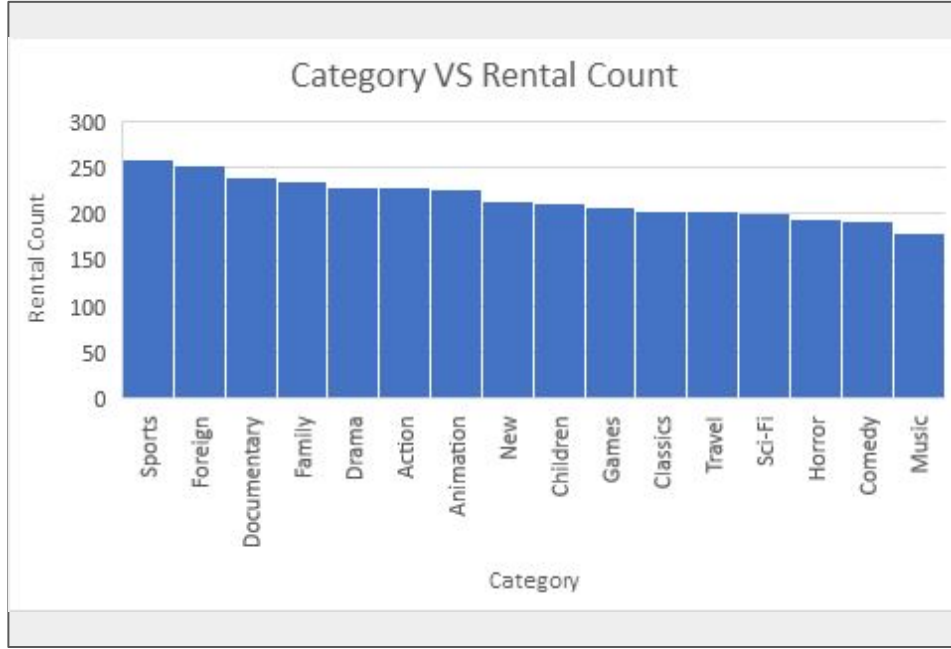

This query utilizes a subquery and a window function to count the rented movies grouped by family friendly films. Such categories include Animation, Children, Classics, Comedy, Family and Music.

What are the quartiles for the duration that family-friendly movies are rented for?

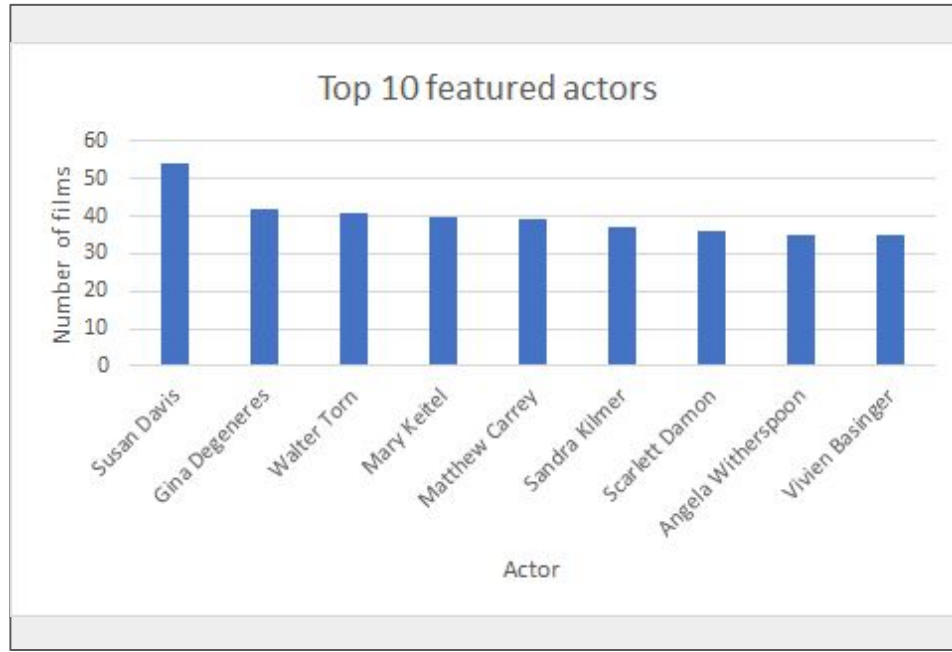

This query also uses a subquery in order to make a table which is then utilized to make quartiles for rent durations of family-friendly movies by using NTILE(4).

What are the most rented categories of films?

This query finds the most rented category of films by counting the films rented and grouping by category.

what are the full names of the highest working actors in terms of total films acted in?

This query presents the full name of the actor by concatenating the films they acted in are counted and grouped by said actors. Through ordering by count descending, we are presented with the highest worked actors.